

Dear Valued Vendors,

Celebrating over 150 years of “Freedom,” the 8th Annual Juneteenth Heritage Festival, “Faith, Family and the Global Future,” will take place in Leimert Park Village (Degnan Blvd. & 43rd Place) on Saturday, June 17th, and Sunday, June 18th, 2017 from 10:00am - 6:00pm, come rain or shine, produced by Black Arts Los Angeles, Inc., (BALA).

Juneteenth Heritage Festival is an annual African American celebration that date back to June 19th, 1865, when the enslaved people in Texas and other southern States found out that they were “free.” Juneteenth Heritage Festival is an outdoor event that provides opportunity to showcase outstanding work from fine artists, crafters, fashion & jewelry designers, and food artists. The festival provides a platform to display and sell products to customers who love and appreciate fine and unique hand crafted goods, jewelry, fashionable clothing, and sumptuous foods as well as enjoy great music.

Learning and sharing our achievement of over 150 years of excellence, BALA’s booth fees remain the same for the 2-day event - $375 for general and $500 for food vendors. (No discount, late fees and/or application fee apply. Payment must be made in full when submitting the application. NB: ONLY 40% refund will be issued for cancellation before June 10th, NO REFUND will be issued for cancellation AFTER June 10th)

Please read the attached information carefully. Fill out and return the attached application to secure your place. Spaces are very limited. We must meet the City requirements, DEADLINES and your payment MUST be received by Friday, June 2, 2017. We want to maximize the exposure you receive in our marketing and promotion campaign via website, Facebook page, Twitter, newspaper, radio and TV spots. To make JUNETEENTH a National Holiday of Observance, much like Flag Day, please go to www.njdo.org and sign the petition.

We look forward to your participation and are here to answer any questions you may have.

Sincerely,
